

Apply to extend your approval through Water Applications Online (WAO)

How-to guide for co-holders

Prior to the expiry of the approval, WaterNSW will send a letter to each holder of the approval with information on the steps to take to extend the approval. You will need to visit Water Applications Online to begin the process.

Step 1

Click the 'Visit Water Applications Online' button.

Home > Applications and fees > Water applications online

Welcome to Water Applications Online

We are making exciting changes to the way you submit applications online and over the coming months you will start to see Water Applications Online replaced by our new Customer Portal.

WaterNSW customers can now apply for a basic landholder rights (BLR) bore via our Customer Portal using the link below.

Apply for a BLR bore here

While this is happening, applications to the NSW Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water (NSW DCCEEW) will need to be submitted through the NSW DCCEEW website.

If you are unsure whether to make your application to NSW DCCEEW, click on the below drop-down list.

Declaration

Compliance with section 105 of the Water Management Act 2000

I/We, the holders of the approval certify, pursuant to section 105 of the Water Management Act 2000, that:

- I/we are the owner(s) of the land on which the water management work to which the approval relates is situated, or
I/we are likely to become the owner(s) of the land within a reasonable time, or
I/we have the benefit of an easement on the land that authorises I/we to construct and use the work, or
I/we are otherwise entitled (whether under the Water Management Act 2000 or any other Act or under an agreement applying to the land) to construct and use the work on the land and;
- the extension is necessary because the particular purpose for which the approval was granted still exists; and
- the terms and conditions of the approval have been complied with, for the term of the approval.

I/We warrant that we are not making any claim that we are entitled to any such easement, licence, easement, right, right, easement, or otherwise to the fullest extent permitted by law

- that all information contained in this application is accurate, true and complete and that the Crown in right of the State of New South Wales, including the DPI Water and its officers, employees, agents and successors ("the State") will rely on such information
- that the State does not provide any legal, financial or technical advice in connection with this application and that any such advice, if required, is to be obtained independently
- that details about any approval arising out of this application will be recorded in the publicly available NSW Water Register pursuant to the Water Management Act 2000
- that if this application is incomplete it may not be accepted
- that more information may be requested if it is considered that it would be relevant to the consideration of this application
